

BoughtXBlood

BIO:

BoughtXBlood formed in 2013 when former bandmates Alvin Triplett (vocals) and Josh Hall (guitar) joined forces again to create a powerful, new group. They were soon joined by Cecil Johnson (drums), Dane Harrison (guitar) and Joe Graybill (bass) creating a group whose passion and talent is immediately evident.

BXB hit the road, including notable appearances at Creation Fest 2016 & 2017, along with a headlining spot on the first ever metal stage at Lynchstock Music Festival 2017.

Fan Feedback:

"I am so grateful for the purpose God has given you guys. Killer music with a message of Redemption and hope. Thank you for defiantly crushing the lies". – Josh Marler

"Just heard about you guys for the first time today, your music is a perfect combination between Sleeping Giant, For Today & Throwdown. I now own Rebirth // Reanimate & Restoration thanks to ITUNES. Hope..." - Joseph and Stephanie Fontenot

New Single "I'm Done" Available Now!

Label: Raging Storm Records

Contact: lisa@ragingstormrecords.com

Social Media: www.facebook.com/bxbofficial

www.ragingstormrecords.com

BoughtXBlood

Song Background:

After spending time on the road playing with other Christian artists, the band found that there was something lacking in the industry: accountability. So many bands preached about God's love, but no one said anything about being held accountable for their sins. When they felt the Lord leading them to address the problem, they could not stay quiet.

Inspired by the verse 2 Peter 1:10, which instructs us to make sure our calling and election is sure, and the previous verses that instruct us how to do that by increasing our knowledge and living Godly: the thought provoking, new single "I'm Done" was created.

"I'm Done" Lyrics:

It's time to forget everything that you've learned.
How long will this go on?
We say we're fighting, yet these lies go on and on.
And how much hell must we go through?
We haven't lost yet, but it's up to me and you.
Run, run away from the appearance of evil.
Stand, stand on the word of God, and stop looking to men before they fail you.
For far too long I've stood silent in the shadows of those who seem greater.
But as I look I see them lead the lost down their own road of failure.
I'm standing boldly now.
Not the weak minded boy you ran over.
It's not over yet. Cause knowledge is power and power will spread.
You've heard the truth and twist it up to make your life seem better.
Admit defeat, repent, believe.
Put off the old man and make everything new.

Well done thy good and faithful servant.
These are the words I want to hear.
I'm tired of all the lies that I keep hearing.
Until I hear Him say well done. I'm done.

I can't believe that you have made it this far.
Your life reflects everything that you are.
With every chance you get you take it too far.
I'm done with it and everything that you are.

I'm done, done with it
I'm done, done with it
I'm done.

Well done they good and faithful servant.
These are the words I want to hear.
I'm tired of all the lies that I keep hearing.
Until I hear him say well done. I'm done.

